

BMO Lending Services

Why choose BMO Lending Services?

Don't waste time chasing up loan options. Let BMO Lending Services do the leg work for you. We'll help select the right finance option for you from a range of lenders.

History - BMO Lending Services commenced in 2009 when BMO Accountants saw the challenges clients were facing when trying to source the right finance option for their needs. To this end, a new finance brokerage service was developed. BMO Lending Services was established with Paul Logan joining the BMO Team to head up this division.

Paul Logan -

With almost 30 years experience in banking and agribusiness, and a friendly customer-focused approach, Paul is enjoying working closely with clients as part of the BMO team. Paul has a strong connection with regional Queensland. He grew up at Clifton on the Darling Downs and spent 24 years in the banking sector including working as branch manager in a range of regional locations including Tara, Chinchilla, Dalby, Jandowae, Gympie and Toowoomba. He then worked in agribusiness finance for a rural bank for five years. Paul has now channelled his finance experience into finding clients the loan that is right for them.

Delivery - BMO Lending Services is specifically designed to deliver clients a broad range of consumer and commercial finance products from an extensive lender panel. It's all part of offering our clients a one-stop-shop for all your business and financial needs. You don't have to be an existing BMO client to have access to our finance brokerage. Why look any further for the best finance rate when BMO can do it for you.

Client Testimonials

I engaged Paul Logan as a broker to assist with my application for finance. Paul has provided a timely and professional service which allowed me to find the most beneficial lending proposal. This would not have been achievable on my own. I would recommend Paul and BMO Lending Services to anyone.

Peter

We are grateful for the work that Paul carried out on our behalf and would not hesitate to ask Paul to assist us should we require financial services offered by BMO Lending Services in the future. We extend our best wishes to BMO Lending Services for a very successful future.

Sandra

I have been dealing with BMO Lending Services over the last couple of months, as Paul has completed my business proposal for my new business and I must say I am very impressed with the professional service I received from Paul. Paul gave 110% service to me whilst handling my business proposal, and made dealing with him an absolute delight.

The BMO Business Centre is fast becoming an icon in the Western Downs region. It's ideally located in the thriving township of Dalby, in a highly visible highway location, set back from the road with ample off-street parking.

The BMO building, which was formerly a bowling alley, was fully renovated and transformed into this superb business centre and officially opened in 2009.

With professional advisors, modern comfortable facilities and friendly team, BMO is a one-stop-shop for all your business and finance needs.
